76 Parkton Road, Jamaica Plain, Mas
October 17, 1918.

Honorable Aubrey Herbert,
Pixton Park,
Dulverton,
England.

Excellency:-

In view of the fact "that the present war had its roots in the disregard of the rights of small nations and nationalities"; in view of the fact that the Allied Powers are determined to effect a settlement in the Balkans on the lines which will clear up the past issues; and hoping that the time to take up such problems is not far distant, we take the honor to forward you, Excellency, the following statement regarding Albania's rights, hopes and aspirations, and humbly beg your Excellency to take the honorable burden of using the influence of your noble nation at the Peace Conference, to defend the vital interests of our friendless nation, as they are stated in the enclosed memorandum.

We have the honor, Excellency, to remain,

Your most obedient servants,

(Mrs.) C. A. Dako
President of the Alb. Nat. Party.
